

 $Roger Williams {\it University} and {\it Roger Williams} {\it University} School of {\it Law}$

Non-AlignedVacationPolicy

(Revised -aligned fulltime and parttime positions, vacation is earned and accrued on a pro-rate of the employees covered under a collective bargaining agreement must appropriate contract.

Policy:

I. VacationAccruals

Vacation accrual begins immediately upon date of mirebenefit-eligibleclass.Years of continuous University service are calculated on an employee's anniversary of employment. Vacation days or hours do not count as time worked for purposes of overtimecalculations.Foraccrualratesbasedon years of service pleasevisit the benefit overviews for your benefit classification posted on the HR webpage.

II. ApplicationProcessor Vacation

An employee's vacation request(s) must be submitted for approval in advance to their manager in accordance with departmental procedur As vance managerial approval must be obtained before use. Employees must request vacation through the University's online timekeeping system.

III. VacationEarningsBalanceLimit

Vacationwill continue to accrue up to a maximum of twelve (12) mont/acation accrual/will not continue once the maximum accumulation has been earned.

IV. Change in Benefit Classification

Employees who change benefit diffication, due to a change in position, or whose scheduled hourschange will have their vacation eligibility updated the online timekeeping systemaccordingly

If the change in benefit classification result of transferring on a non-aligned position into a faculty bargaining unit position, employee will be paid out all accrued vacation timeprior to transferring into the new position. For transfer out of other bargaining unit positions, the vacation balance will remain as part of your ed vacation balance.

V. Separation from the University

Employeesseparating from the University or School of Law, with one year or more of service will receive their unused accrued vacation no later than, rtbs testablished paydate after the date of the employee's dast regulare arnings paycheck.

Approved:

President

Date: Recommended or Approval resident's Cabinet